THE NAME ADVISOR FOR PEOPLE

There are many reasons you might want to analyze a name. Perhaps you are considering a name change or are expecting a child. In any case, it is important to recognize that the name you choose is only one part of the picture that determines who you will become.

A name is not unlike a blueprint. It reveals the talents, shortcomings, likes and dislikes, and a wide range of other traits, that were gifted on the day you received your name. Although your name may remain unchanged for decades, you evolve and change over time. This evolution begins with your date of birth. If a name change takes place later in life, it alters some of the traits and characteristics of the individual going forward, but the birth date and original birth name will continue to have the greatest impact.

In short, your name is YOU; your date of birth is YOUR PATH. Intertwined and co-dependent, every building block in a personality's DNA has the potential to change or disappear entirely, just as a missing quality can be learned or unlearned.

HOW TO READ THIS REPORT

No name is perfect. What you should look for are the specific strengths and talents you hope will benefit the person receiving the name.

If the name you are analyzing is for an unborn child, the report will only describe personality traits as reflected in the name you choose. Although it will be an incomplete picture (since the date of birth is unknown) it will still be a specific and detailed reading of the person about to be born.

The full name at birth describes their Personality, Hearts Desire, and Expression. If the child has already been born, use this Name Advisor to try a range of names. Once you have narrowed your choices, you may want to follow up with a complete Personality Profile, since you now also have the date of birth.

If you are considering a name change for yourself, the Name Advisor provides opportunities to try several names and variations. However, choosing a new name is not unlike buying a suit; it needs to fit. It is less important to find a name with a specific quality than to find one that suits you and feels comfortable to the person you know yourself to be.

Note: The report is written as if the person already exists.

HOW HER NAME NUMBERS STACK UP

If a successful team were gathered for a large, perhaps global, project it would require a methodical, detail-oriented administrator; a dynamic, innovative promoter, and a sophisticated, tolerant associate who relates well to people from different cultures. Fortunate for her, each of these traits are exemplified in the combination of her 4, 5, and 9, respectively.

Her Expression number reveals in large part her talents, abilities, and shortcomings, especially as they relate to her career and productive life. A 9 in this position indicates she can interact with people from all walks of life and relates easily to people from different cultures. She functions well in environments that are different from the one she grew up in. The seeds of tolerance, empathy, and idealism form the foundation of her personality. The 9 is the most demanding and sophisticated of all single-digit numbers. It is the politician's number but is also artistic. Architects, fashion designers, and photographers often have a 9 prominent in their charts.

A possible struggle to find her niche and reach her full potential, both personally and in her professional life, exists between her 4 Heart's Desire and her 5 Personality. Her Personality is the "outer" reflection of who she is rather than the "inner" reflection of her Heart's Desire. A 5 Personality suggests others view her as unconventional and individualistic. This side of her desires space and freedom. Due to its rebellious nature, the 5 prefers to be seen as different, so it may take her a little time to lose some of her wild hairs. She should guard against irresponsible behavior and overindulgence, especially as they relate to the consumption of drugs, alcohol, or food.

Her 4 Heart's Desire suggests that she is disciplined, persistent, reliable, and detail oriented. This is the exact opposite of her 5 Personality. Because it is her Heart's Desire number, it will motivate her to gain control over her life, even at a relatively early age. Although she carries the attributes of the 5, it is the 4 that drives her choices and decisions. It seeks stability, predictability, and control; these traits must be honored to live a happy, fulfilled life.

Although her dynamic, undisciplined Personality will sometimes conflict with her grounded Heart's Desire, they have complementary attributes as well. Her 5 Personality will help balance her (potentially) boring, habitual 4 Heart's Desire. It makes her more flexible, outgoing, jovial, adaptable, and able to promote herself and her ideas. In return, her 4 Heart's Desire will help rein in the adventurous 5.

Once she reaches maturity and finds a way to express the positive qualities of her numbers, there is very little she will not be able to accomplish. The sophisticated, worldly 9, combined with the inventive, dynamic 5, and the practical, persistent 4 creates a truly powerful combination. Still, it may take her some time to find the career and work environment that best suits her. One side of her desires something stable and predictable, while the other seeks variety and a regular change in surroundings. These challenges can be overcome more easily if she is aware of them. Careers to consider include management in an organization with a global presence, preferably where there is interaction with people from different cultures. The military or law enforcement would also be suitable. Most importantly, she needs to feel she is doing something to better humanity, as her Expression is highly idealistic.

In her personal life, she is drawn to artists, eccentrics, and people with big dreams and plans. The mundane does not interest her. She may not be the most demonstrative romantically (because she does not relish revealing her vulnerable side) but she is capable of true love and loyalty.

Let us look at each of the core numbers for more insight.

A CLOSER LOOK AT HER 9 EXPRESSION

She is a humanitarian who will be attracted to a cause or a movement whose purpose is to make a better world. This person is extremely idealistic, sometimes to the point of being naive about people or methods. She has great compassion and seeks to create a more humane society. She is drawn to those who suffer physically or are at the hand of injustice. She is the righter of wrongs. Her deepest intention is to transform the world. She is willing to sacrifice to advance her cause. Indeed, this seems to be a theme in her life. From time to time, she finds herself involved in a project whose very life depends upon her willingness to sacrifice something that relates directly to her ego.

She is highly idealistic. She is also a visionary with the ability to influence and direct the masses. Deep inside, she longs for the love and approval of the many and seeks fame. Part of her hunger for fame has to do with her need for validation; she is her own harshest critic.

She realizes her greatest satisfaction when she is involved in some activity that directly benefits the public good. Politics, law, protection of the environment, teaching, and healing are areas in which she would succeed.

She has a broad view of humanity and is not shackled with prejudice. She should have friends and associates from all walks of life, all colors, all religious backgrounds. People fascinate and enrich her. A wide diversity of people and experiences stimulate and bring forth qualities within her that would otherwise lay dormant. She has an abundance of artistic talent. Many with her Expression number find themselves in the arts.

The number 9 indicates the completion of a cycle or a block of learning. The 9 Expression suggests that she has reached the point where a breakthrough can occur; during this lifetime she can apply all that she has learned along her evolutionary path and complete a major stage in her development. Therefore, we find many geniuses with the 9 Expression. She can synthesize many diverse bits of knowledge into a unified whole.

Appearance is important for this person. She is keenly aware of how others perceive her. As a result, others see her as a person with a great deal of control. Conversely, she is charismatic. Despite the cool and distant personality she projects, people are attracted to her.

She tends to express her love somewhat impersonally. She tends to be preoccupied with her vision or cause, and sometimes overlooks the needs of those closest to her. She needs to be reminded to give her love more personally and more openly. Ironically, she is a very loving and sincere person, but often neglects to express what she truly feels. In the same way, she can overlook her own needs. She can avoid sharing of her deeper feelings, creating a reservoir of emotion. She tends to postpone her personal satisfaction in favor of some larger work. She should try to be more spontaneous and courageous about showing her real self, including her vulnerability.

Her basic belief in the goodness of humanity is unshakable. This causes her to encourage the best in people, but occasionally makes her vulnerable to being taken advantage of. She is not a very good judge of character.

The surest way to personal satisfaction is for her to become part of some larger social cause. Her nature is to serve. She is happiest when she feels she is helping to advance humanity.

HER HEART'S DESIRE IS 4

She likes to live a stable, well-organized life. She dislikes sudden changes. She prefers orderliness in all things. She has a systematic mind that is reflected in everything she does. She can establish and maintain a routine. She is exacting with details and quite thorough. She likes to carefully analyze a problem and then tackle it in a logical and practical approach. She wants to be dependable, a rock of strength and an example of discipline for others. Work is central to her life, but she may tend to overdo it; she can easily become a workaholic if she is not careful. She has a great deal of energy and can accomplish a lot.

She wants a family, and she is a good parent. She may carry the discipline and the need for orderliness too far, especially in her family, making children and spouse feel oppressed and limited. Flexibility is her key to harmony and balance in life. For her, structure is more important than freedom, which she tends to interpret as chaos. But others do not have her need for well-defined systems, in fact, they may feel deeply inhibited and uncomfortable with it. The peace she gets from orderliness may represent a prison to someone else.

She needs and wants much love, but she is not very demonstrative. She can be a little rigid and stubborn.

She is honest and unpretentious. She detests liars and affectations. She can be very determined and tenacious. She is the bedrock of any enterprise. She has the courage to go into the nitty gritty of a problem and produce a solution.

HER PERSONALITY IS A 5

She is a stimulating person. She brightens social gatherings with her fresh and original ideas. Her conversation tends to be sprinkled with novelty and wit. She has a quick tongue and charisma. She is probably an excellent salesperson. There is a lot of nervous energy within her looking for an outlet. She loves her freedom, and she sees this life as an ongoing adventure. She is upbeat and optimistic. This is infectious for those she meets. As a result, she inspires others. She has a strong and attractive body, with good muscle tone. Her movements are supple, graceful, and athletic.

Her bane is that she loves to indulge her senses with food and drink and can easily gain weight. She has an appetite for anything that stimulates the senses -- sex, food, alcohol, and drugs. Discipline is a necessity for her. The negative side of a 5 Personality Number can give rise to an addictive personality.

She likes to dress fashionably and can get away with more colorful clothes. However, she should be aware of the value of quality and the power of modesty.

She is a little irresponsible and quick in satisfying her sensual urges. She is attractive and that, coupled with her innate ability to promote herself, makes it easy for her to satisfy her desire for new and exciting relationships. She has a kind of swashbuckling personality. People see her as the adventurer that she is. They expect the unexpected from her.

She has a quick and eclectic mind. She attracts information from all directions, but she can be a bit superficial, skimming over the surface of a wide diversity of subjects. This may cause her to be a bit of a dilettante. She can get away with it much of the time, but for her own success and happiness, she should try to ground knowledge and deepen her understanding.

Her versatility and adaptability make her capable of getting the most out of virtually every opportunity in life. She decides quickly on a course of action and her timing is usually good. She radiates with the potential for success, which attracts others who can further her along her path.
